

Atascadero To honor the memory of Joanne Main, the former CEO of the Atascadero Chamber of Commerce, Atascadero Elks Lodge No. 2733 recently donated $500 to Friends of the Library to help the new Atascadero Martin Polin Library.

Main was a strong supporter of the Atascadero library. She and her husband, David Main, were founders of the library's recent expansion campaign.

SLO County- The Central Coast Women's League recently raised $10,600 during its annual Bingo for Breast Cancer Fundraiser. Recipients of the funds are: Community Action Partnership of San Luis Obispo, which received $8,480 to fund free mammograms for community members younger than 50 who are at risk and uninsured; and Enhancement Inc., which received $2,120 to help provide breast cancer related treatments.

Pacific Wildlife Care, a local nonprofit organization that rehabilitates sick and injured wildlife for release into the wild, recently received the gift from four local businesses of a solar hot water system at its Morro Bay facility. The donors were: Atascadero's Semmes & Co. Builders Inc., Solarponics Inc. and Hutch Heating and Air; and Reid Roofing of Paso Robles.

